Gifted Curriculum Night : Different, Not More!

Presented by Karen Brown, Director of Gifted Education

Tuesday, August 15, 2023
6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Come explore what it means to be a gifted learner and the challenges these students face in navigating our educational system. We will examine the continuum of gifted services offered through the Paradise Valley Unified School District. There are so many opportunities for gifted students to excel.

About the Speaker: Karen Brown is the director of Gifted Education. She previously served as the Gifted and Accelerated Learning director at Scottsdale Unified School District. In her role, she works with K-12 administrators, teachers, parents, and students to ensure that the instructional practices and materials utilized provide the appropriate challenge for all students. Karen earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education/Special Education from Northern Arizona University and a Master's in Education in Special Education: Gifted Emphasis from Arizona State University. Karen teaches in the Gifted Education Masters' Program at ASU and consults throughout the country. She was the recipient of the 2018 NAGC Specialist's and Masters' Award, co-recipient of the 2013 NAGC Professional Network Award, and the 2013 AAGT Gifted Teacher of the Year. Karen is currently the NAGC Professional Learning Network Chair. She has co-authored two books, Differentiated Lessons for Every Learner and A Teacher's Guide to Flexible Grouping and Collaborative Learning winner of the 2019 NAGC Book of the Year Award.
