Parenting for and with Creativity

Presented by Ronald A Beghetto, Ph.D.

Thursday, February 15, 2022
6:00 p.m. - 7:15 p.m.

The purpose of this presentation is to help you develop a deeper understanding of why creativity is so critical to your child's and your own learning and life. In this highly interactive presentation, you will learn new ways to help your child realize their creative potential. You will come away with a new understanding of how parenting for and with creativity can support your child's learning and development in and beyond school settings, including how to support creative resilience in children when they encounter failure and setbacks. You will also have an opportunity to engage in possibility thinking with Dr. Beghetto and other parents to address specific questions, concerns, and interests you and other parents have when it comes to parenting for and with creativity.
